Project manager, executive assistant and marketing head for a US fintech brand, based in the Philippines.

Calendars, billing, SOPs and people on one side. Brand, video and design on the other. I have done both since 2019, and I use AI and automation to build the tools in between.

Experience

Aug 2025 - Present Marketing Head, Project Manager and Executive Assistant Banrox, US fintech. Remote, offshore team

- Serves as executive assistant to leadership: calendars, reports, correspondence and strategic priorities.
- Handles billing, invoicing, payment tracking, reconciliation and payroll coordination for remote staff.
- Sets scope, timelines and deliverables across product, operations and marketing.
- Builds SOPs, playbooks and documentation that standardize workflows across departments.
- Directs strategy, content, social media and campaigns for the US market.
- Supervises virtual staff and department leads through check-ins, performance reviews and onboarding.
- Tracks marketing KPIs and prepares weekly and monthly reports for leadership.
- Built and leads a remote team in the Philippines, creating local jobs.

AI and automation at Banrox

- Helped leadership move faster with AI-drafted reports, correspondence, research briefs and SOPs.
- Helped the team automate post scheduling across social channels through the Zoho Social API.
- Helped keep bank-rate data current with AI-driven browser automation.
- Produced SaaS video ads and reels with code-built motion graphics, Higgsfield and ElevenLabs.
- Helped build banrox.com, including the Squad Card and Personal loan pages.
